

Picture the Tree of Life with Play Dough

In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations (Revelation 22:2).

This is a fun way for children to depict the Tree of Life with its twelve fruits!

Suggested Supplies:

green play dough
brown play dough
sturdy plastic or paper plates, white or blue (for a sky color)
plastic beads in the shape of fruits

Note: If you cannot find twelve different shapes, use other colorful plastic beads and pretend that they are different fruits. Buttons would also work.

Procedure:

1. Roll a "snake" out of brown play dough and press it to the plate to make a tree trunk.
2. Roll a sizeable ball of green play dough and press it on to the plate to make the leaves of the tree.
3. Decorate the tree with twelve different kinds of fruits.
4. Variation for older children:
Make the river flowing past the tree out of blue play dough. Use glitter to make the water sparkle.
5. Make copies of title to display with the project:

In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations (Revelation 22:2).
