

The Tree of Life

Based on Genesis 2 & 3, Revelation 22: 14, 19: 9

John Odhner

1. In the Gar-den of E - den was ev - 'ry tree That's good to eat and good to see
 2. And God said, "Man should not be a - lone I'll make him a help - er from his bone."
 3. The Wo - man took its fruit and ate, And al - so gave some to her mate,
 4. And then the Lord God said to Eve, "In great sor - row you'll con - ceive.

In the mid - dle of the gar - den the tree of life stood And the tree of the know - ledge of e - vil and good
 From out of Man the Wo - man was named, And they were na - ked and not a - shamed.
 And they were a - shamed of what they did, So they went a - mong the trees and hid.
 Your chil - dren will be born with pain, And o - ver you your man will reign."

- The Lord God gave the man a com - mand "You may eat of ev - 'ry tree in the land,
 The ser - pent, of all the beasts most sly, Said to the wo - man, "You shall not die!
 God said to the ser - pent, "Since you've done so, On your bel - ly you shall go,
 "And Man, be - cause you heed - ed your wife, With toil you shall eat for all your life.
 5. The Lord God said, "Man knows too much. The tree of life he may not touch."

But the tree of know - ledge do not try, For when you eat you'll sure - ly die!"
 For God knows it will o - pen your eyes, And make you just like God, so wise!"
 And you'll eat dust for all your life. Be - tween you and Wo - man I'll put strife!"
 With thorns and this - tles in ev - 'ry place, You'll eat your bread with sweat on your face!"
 And so God drove the cou - ple out, With a flam - ing sword turn - ing all a - bout.

Bless - ed are those who do His com - mand - ments That they may have right to the Tree of Life, To en - ter the gates of hea - ven - ly ci - ty, To the mar - riage of the Lamb and His wife!
