

Joy Comes in the Morning 325

*Psalm 30: 5, 11-12; John 16: 21-22;
Matthew 28: 1-6, Mark 16: 1-6; Luke 24: 1-7*

John Odhner

1. A wo-man in la-bor has pain— when she comes— to the birth
 2. The wo - men came to His tomb,— at the break - ing of day.

but pain— chan-ges to joy— o - ver a child— born on the earth.
 They were ask - ing each o - ther,— “Who will roll the stone— a - way?”

You may weep— and mourn— and have grief— for to - day,
 But an an - gel clothed— in white said to them, “Don’t— be a - afraid,

But when I see you a - gain you’ll have joy that no - one can take— a - way
 Now— Je - sus is ri - sen! Come,— see where He lay.”

Weep - ing may last through the night,— but joy— comes in the morn - ing!—

You haveturned my griev - ing to dan - - - cing!— You’ve ta - ken a-way all my rags— and clothed me with glad - ness!—

Now glo - ry may sing— praise— to You!
